Run Reports

Run: 1932
Date: 10/09/2012
Hare: Gomer Pyle
From: Nardoo St. (Milo's place)
DHOTW: The Phantom

We all assembled at Nardoo St (Milo's borrowed place) for a run set by Gomer. It was out the front, down to the lane-way to Fernleigh Rd then down Glenfield Rd into the maze of Tolland. Walkers were on track and short-cutted a bit, only to keep up with the runners. Trail went off down Huthwaite St towards Alcatraz's place (where a lucky few has a cold stubby waiting) and also the OH. Back at Nardoo, Milo had the "woofa" roaring away., and Gomer was cooking up a feast of sausages, rissoles, along with salads and potato bake. There was plenty of ice cold ale on hand. DHOTW went to The Phantom.

Run: 1933
Date: 17/09/2012
Hare: Magpie
From: Beckwith St
DHOTW: Rin Tin Tin

Magpie's started in Beckwith St at the Hash Grotto, headed straight to the sewerage works behind Waradgery. Runners were lead through lots of shiggey while the walkers skirted the levy bank, headed down to Waradgery Reserve then into town, down Kincaid St to home. The runners were all back by this time, short cutting bastards. Magpie served up copious snags and salad. Drama Queen was presented with a very cute Drama Queen t-shirt. DHOTW went to Rinty, again... just because.

Run: 1934
Date: 24/09/2012
Hare: Henry & Eura
From: Woodburn, Obriens Ck Rd.
DHOTW: Dude

Run 1934 was set from the snake infested property of Eura's at Woodburn. A small but brave mob set out to the front gate, runners went across the road, over a gate and into the cow pat filled paddocks. The run meandered through the paddocks, coming out over a barbed wire fence on Wrigley's Lane. The OH (there were two of them, just in case I cam out of the paddock too far up the lane) was in the lane. The walkers did the familiar "circuit". Once back at home, the supersized "fire bucket" was roaring... punters standing further and further back as the night grew on. Dinner of slow cooked beef in red wine was served. DHOTW was, first of all, 86, who declined to drink it as he is pregnant so Xena redirected it across the circle to Dude, for no reason at all.

Run: 1935
Date: 01/10/2012
Hare: Taxi
From: Pugsley Ave, Estella
DHOTW: Taxi

Taxi's run headed out into the wilds of Estella... towards the new estate. Those "Estellerites" in the know suspected it might be run 22c or 22e. We all stayed on trail with the runners criss-crossing with the walkers, and definitely heading down to the new estate. Walkers met the runners coming back up from the dirt-track off-shoot of Rainbow Drive where they found OH hiding under a tree. Back home the grub was served... beautiful homemade lasagne with green salad and potato bake (thanks Marj). The fire bucket was roaring and caused the mob to form a natural circle. DHOTW went to Taxi... for hiding the OH.
