

HASHIT

Run No: 1684

Hare: Boom Box

Where: Yentoo Drv, Glenfield

When: 10 December 2007

Possibly due to a neighbour's over zealous watering, Boom Box's check at the first corner could not be seen, so we all blindly followed Dude, who looked like he knew where he was going, straight down a false trail.

Once back on trail the pack quickly dispersed with not a call of On On to be heard. Pink Bits and Father Matt reverted back to childhood showing us once and for all why adults should not ride on flying foxes. Pink Bits went on to prove that play parks really are designed with kiddies in mind, nearly giving herself a full frontal lobotomy in the process. This really should have earned her a nomination for DHOTW but unfortunately we all went blank at the crucial moment.

After several more checks and false trail after false trail, Gomer and Father Matt decided to make up a trail of their own. Pink Bits called On On and the rest of the walkers forged on, before finally losing trail and taking a short cut home.

Only two more circles till Christmas!

Employee Christmas Party MEMO

Christmas Party

December 1...To All Employees

I'm happy to inform you that the company Christmas Party will be held on December 21st at Luigi's Open Pit Barbecue. There will be lots of spiked eggnog and a small band will play traditional carols...feel free to sing-along. And don't be surprised if our CEO shows up dressed as Santa Claus to light the Christmas tree.

Exchanging gifts among employees can be done at this time. Please remember to keep gifts to the agreed $10 limit.

Merry Christmas to you and yours,

Patty Lewis, Human Resources Director

December 2...To All Employees

In no way was yesterday's memo intended to exclude our Jewish employees. We recognize that Hanukkah is an important holiday and often coincides with Christmas (although not this year). However, from now on we're calling this party our Holiday Party. The same policy also applies to employees who are celebrating Kwanzaa at this time. There will be no tree or Christmas carols sung.

Happy holidays to you and yours.

Patty Lewis, Human Resources Director

December 3...To All Employees

Regarding the anonymous note I received from a member of Alcoholics Anonymous requesting a non-drinking table, I'm happy to accommodate your request but please remember that if I put a sign on the table that reads "AA Only" you won't be anonymous any more.

In addition, we'll no longer be having a gift exchange because union members feel that $10 is too much money.

Patti Lewis, Human Resources Director

December 7...To All Employees

I have arranged for members of Overeaters Anonymous to sit farthest away from the dessert table and for pregnant members to sit closest to the restrooms. Gays are allowed to sit with each other. Lesbians do not have to sit with gays; each group will have its own table. And, yes, there will be a flower arrangement for the gay men's table.
Happy now?

December 9...To All Employees

People! People! Nothing sinister was intended by wanting our CEO to play Santa Claus. Even if the anagram for "Santa" does happen to be "Satan." There is no evil connotation to our own little "man in a red suit."

December 10...To All Employees

Vegetarians! I've had it with you people. We're holding this party at Luigi's Open Pit Barbecue whether you like it or not. You can just sit at the table farthest from the "Grill of Death" as you call it, and you'll get salad bar only including hydroponics tomatoes. Tomatoes have feelings too, you know. They scream when you slice them. I can hear them now. I hope you have a rotten holiday. Drive drunk and die, you hear me?

December 14...To All Employees

I'm sure I speak for all of us in wishing Patty Lewis a speedy recovery from her stress-related illness. I'll continue to forward your cards to her at the sanatorium. In the meantime management has decided to cancel the Holiday Party and give everyone the afternoon of the 21st off with full pay.

Terri Bishop, Acting Human Resources Director
